NATIONAL ASHI Information:

I am a CANDIDATE since _____

I am a member since _____ My CANDIDATE Number is _____

Tri-State Chapter of the American Society of Home Inspectors By-Laws

To become a member of Tri-State ASHI you must acknowledge the following points:

- I understand that I cannot, as a Candidate, vote, hold office, or participate in any chapter-based marketing campaigns, and cannot exercise any of the other rights of membership.
- I will not advertise or publicize myself as an ASHI Member while still a Candidate. I will wait until I have written notice approving my member status. This usage includes using the ASHI name or logo or advertising or implying, in any and all promotional material, that I am affiliated with ASHI.
- I will not actively engage in the business of real estate, as a real estate broker or salesperson, or sell, purchase, or list real estate for third parties.
- I will not repair any conditions I find during inspections and will not endorse or recommend individuals or business for repair work (including any business in which I find financial interest).
- I will not use my home inspection contacts to deliberately obtain additional work in another field.
- I will, as a Candidate, perform home inspections in accordance with ASHI's Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics.
- I understand that if I lose my Candidate's status with ASHI, by not qualifying for membership after three years, then I must give up my membership with Tri-State ASHI.

Tri-State ASHI members, who are ASHI Candidates, are encouraged to:

- Deal directly with members of the press concerning their own businesses.
- Request copies of official ASHI press releases for use in connection with their own publicity efforts.
- Promote inspector qualifications consistent with those indorsed by ASHI.
- Promote the ASHI Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics.
- Refer members of the press to ASHI's Spokesperson, the Chair of ASHI's PR Committee or ASHI's Publicity Consultant for further background on ASHI and home inspections in general.
- Contact the PR office or the Executive Office to confirm or obtain information for the media.

Chapter dues are $325 per year payable on an annual basis. Option: $167.50 is payable on a semi-annual basis. Semi-annual payments are due by June 30 and December 31. Monthly meeting payment must be made until the semi-annual payment deadline. Please enclose your dues with this application.

Acknowledgements

I have read and fully understand all statements in this application. I hereby certify that all statements are correct.

I also understand that any falsification of these documents will automatically exclude me from membership in the Tri-State Chapter of ASHI. Enclosed is a copy of my Candidate verification letter from the American Society of Home Inspectors. Chapter membership cannot be accepted until all of these materials are supplied.
